Revised & Approved 11-10-16

ARTICLE I – Name

The name of this organization shall be the Door Association for Home and Community Education, hereinafter shall be referred to as County Association.

ARTICLE II – Functions of the County Association

Section 1 - To promote and extend education aimed toward improved family and community living offered by Family Living Programs, Cooperative Extension, and University of Wisconsin – Extension.

Section 2 - To extend leadership to members in the formulation and implementation of the education programs.

Section 3 - To encourage the active participation of all members in carrying out the business and program of the County Association.

Section 4 - To promote family strengths, leadership development and the State and County Associations for Home and Community Education.

ARTICLE III – Non-profit Education Association

The County Association is a non-profit education association. Any funds received by the County Association for carrying out its purposes shall not accrue to the benefit of individual members. The Door Association for Home and Community Education is a subordinate of the Wisconsin Association for Home and Community Education, Inc. for Federal Internal Revenue group exemption purposes.

ARTICLE IV – Dissolution

The County Association is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon the dissolution of the County Association, the County Council shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the County Association, dispose of all the assets of the County Association exclusively for the purposes of the County Association in such matter, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) as the County Council shall determine.
