

HUGH BIRDSALL, JOHN WOOD & MARION BIRDSALL
4-H SCHOLARSHIPS – 2025

1. The Door County 4-H Leaders Association and its Executive Board will award three scholarships of $1,000 each to 4-H members who plan to further their education.

Eligibility:

- A. Must be currently enrolled in Door County 4-H.

Note: 4-H membership eligibility extends through the first year after high school graduation. (i.e.: Applicants are eligible for this scholarship in their first year of post-high school education as long as they are enrolled as a 4-H member in the Door County 4-H program)

- B. Must be currently enrolled or accepted as a full-time student in a post-secondary education program (2-year, 4-year, certificate, vocational training, etc.).
- C. Previous recipients may apply again, but will not be eligible to win the same name scholarship they previously were awarded (not eligible to win the same scholarship twice).

2. TO APPLY:

PART I: Applicant Information (form)

PART II: Cover Letter (sample attached) – limited to one page in length

PART III: 4-H Resume (sample attached) – limit your resume to two pages or less in length

PART IV: Choose and answer two of the following essay questions. Limit your response to no more than 500 words each (answer each on a separate sheet)

- 1) What 4-H experience had the biggest impact on you and why?
- 2) What life skills has 4-H taught you, and how do you currently use, or plan to use those skills?
- 3) In the 4-H pledge, we pledge our hand to larger service. What have you done in 4-H to help another person, your community, county, state, country, or world? How did that impact your perspective?

PART V: Signed Letter of Recommendation from 4-H Volunteer (club or project leader) or someone that can speak to your 4-H involvement

Signed Letter of Recommendation from another individual –can be from School (i.e. principal, advisor, teacher), Church, Employer, or Community Organization

3. In the event the applicant does not follow through with his or her plans for school or if no worthy applicants are found, the scholarships will be held over until the following year. In the case of a hold-over year, if funds are available, additional scholarships will be awarded the following year. In the event of a tie, the scholarships will be split, awarding half to each recipient. The Door County 4-H Leaders Association provides funding for these scholarships.
4. The Door County 4-H Leaders Association will oversee the selection of one applicant for each scholarship. Scoring will be done by both 4-H members and community members outside of 4-H. No immediate relative of an applicant shall be involved in the selection of a winner.
5. Applications should be completed and postmarked on or before March 1st. If the application is not complete, including recommendations, it will be disqualified. Follow-up is the applicant's responsibility. No late applications will be accepted.

6. Applications can be:
 - Mailed to: 4-H Scholarships, c/o Extension Door County
421 Nebraska Street, Sturgeon Bay, WI 54235.
 - Dropped off in person at the Extension Door County office located at 421 Nebraska Street, Sturgeon Bay, WI 54235.
 - Emailed to: Candis Dart, Door County 4-H Program Educator at candis.dart@wisc.edu
7. Additional items that are submitted with the application packet will be removed from the packet before being shared with reviewers. Only include the required items with your application.
8. Results will be announced following selection. Scholarship recipients will receive the scholarship as determined each year by the 4-H Leaders Association. Recipients will also be recognized at the 4-H Recognition Celebration, held in the fall.
9. Applicants may apply more than once if they meet eligibility requirements.
10. The file will be available on the Door County 4-H Website to allow for easier completion: (<http://door.extension.wisc.edu/4-h-youth-development/>). You may also contact the Extension office to have a Word-format emailed to you.
11. These scholarships are named after three long-time 4-H leaders, Hugh Birdsall, Marion Birdsall and John Wood, but the winners are not selected by immediate members of the Birdsall or Wood Family.

2. Address _____

3. Parent's Name (if applicable) _____

4. High School Attended _____

Date of Graduation _____ GPA _____

6. College, University or Technical School currently attending (if applicable):

Area of Study _____ GPA _____

OR

College, University or Technical School where you have been accepted/planning to attend:

Area of Study _____

PART II -- COVER LETTER (See Sample Below)

1. Write an introduction:

- a. Begin your cover letter by writing an introductory paragraph that describes who you are and why you're interested in earning a scholarship. You may discuss how receiving this funding could provide you with educational opportunities you may not have access to or how the organization relates to your academic and professional interests.
- b. Include information about yourself, such as the school you attend or the program you're interested in, your major and the degree you're earning. You can use the introductory paragraph to share your enthusiasm for your academic career and the subject you're studying. This allows members of the reviewing committee to learn more about your personality and interests.

2. Discuss 4-H experiences and describe your academic interest & goals:

- a. In your first body paragraph, discuss your 4-H experience or any internships you've completed and highlight how they relate to the scholarship or your academic major.
- b. Review committees may look for candidates who commit to their 4-H growth and development. Describing your 4-H experience can help you demonstrate you continue to challenge yourself and seek learning opportunities related to your field of study.
- c. Highlight your academic interests and goals. Scholarships typically assist students with educational funding, so reviewing committees may be interested in candidates with academic aspirations and desires.
- d. You can use this paragraph to describe the degree you're interested in pursuing or discuss why a particular program or university may support your plans.

3. Review your post-graduation aspirations:

- a. Besides your 4-H experience and short-term academic goals, consider discussing your post-graduation aspirations. Whether you're interested in pursuing a graduate degree, earning a particular professional license or entering the workforce, discussing these goals can help members of the scholarship committee gain a better understanding of your plans and desires.
- b. An organization that designates scholarships may view its funding as an investment in students and their futures. You may benefit from highlighting the long-term impact that receiving financial assistance could have on your academic and professional career following graduation.

4. Write a closing paragraph:

- a. You can end your cover letter with a closing paragraph that summarizes your goals and credentials. You can also use this section to thank the reviewing committee for their consideration and express your gratitude for the opportunity to apply for this particular scholarship.
- b. Include your contact information and offer it to members of the reviewing committee if they want to follow up about the status of your application or have questions about your information and credentials.

Tips to write a Cover Letter for a scholarship:

- Review the scholarship qualifications
- Proofread and revise
- Include quantifiable accomplishments
- Discuss information that differs from your other application documents
- Tailor it to the scholarship to which you're applying
- Align your writing style with the designating organization
- Distinguish yourself by sharing personal details
- Use proper formatting
- Avoid balancing emotional appeals with objective facts
- Avoid writing with an impersonal tone
- Avoid being too vague

COVER LETTER EXAMPLE

Sturgeon Bay, WI 54235

Dear Door County 4-H Leaders Association,

It is my pleasure to submit this cover letter, my application, and recommendation letters for the Wisconsin 4-H and Youth Conference. This is my seventh year as a 4-H member. I have been very active with my projects and as a member in my club, Lucky Clovers. My enclosed resume and portfolio highlight my 4-H involvement. Participation in other 4-H events has made me interested in attending Wisconsin 4-H and Youth Conference.

4-H has provided me with some great experiences. I have increased my communication skills by participating in the county speaking contest, as well as serving as secretary for my club. I have learned to give back to my community by helping with my club's senior citizens holiday party and helping at many Horse and Pony events.

Last year I attended the Winter Leadership Camp. I enjoyed meeting other 4-H members from other counties. I learned a lot about being a leader and heard a lot about other trips. Other 4-H members who attended Wisconsin 4-H and Youth Conference told me about the great opportunity to meet 4-Hers from across Wisconsin, while taking part in fun classes. If I got to attend I would do a good job representing Door County and would tell other 4-H members in my club and in the county what Conference was all about and why they should attend.

I hope to attend Wisconsin 4-H and Youth Conference to learn more about 4-H and to meet other people. My past experiences representing Door County, enthusiasm to be involved, and my willingness to share what I learn with others make me a great candidate.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Chris Clover
